AIKEN, S.C. – Archer Price carded a 1-under-par 69 in the first round, while Cody

O'Toole logged a 70 in the second to lead the Georgia Southern men's golf team into a tie for sixth Monday at the Cleveland Golf Palmetto Intercollegiate at Palmetto Golf Club.

Price (69-77=146) and Steven Fisk (74-72=146) are tied for 26th on the individual leaderboard. Jake Storey shot 75-72=147, and Henry Mabbett posted a 70-77=147. O'Toole finished with a 78-70=148.

South Carolina (-18) leads the tournament, and Virginia (-4) is second. Georgia Southern (+19) is tied with Chattanooga, three strokes behind North Carolina State (+16) in fifth. Maryland (+20), Liberty (+21) and Coastal Carolina (+21) round out the top-10.

The story – Rd. 2

O'Toole recovered from a difficult first round to lead the Eagles in the afternoon session. The junior parred his first five holes and scored par or better, including two birdies, on his final 11 holes for a 70. Fisk was 2-under through his first 11 holes and rolled in a team-high four birdies. Storey scored par or better on his first nine holes and parred six of his last seven.

The story – Rd. 1

Price rolled in four birdies in the round, including on three of his last four holes to post a team-leading, 1-under-par 69. Mabbett tallied five birdies in the morning session and was 2-under through 12 holes on his way to an even-par 70. After a tough start, Fisk got going and played his final 11 holes at even par. Storey was 2-under par through his first seven holes and 1-over through 11.

Quotables from Coach Carter Collins

"I'm proud of our efforts today. There are some very challenging holes at Palmetto, and we navigated through those fine, but we were missing better play on the 'getable' par 5s. Our course management is improving throughout the year, and it's fun to watch us continually improve. We are not far off from putting it all together. We are looking forward to tomorrow."

Next up

The Eagles play the third and final round in a shotgun start tomorrow at 8:30 a.m. Georgia Southern is paired with Maryland and Liberty and will tee off holes 7-9.
